

Safety Inspection Blitz to Target Employers of “New and Young Workers”

July 15, 2019

Ontario’s Ministry of Labour has started a summer safety inspection blitz of workplaces with high numbers of new and young (summer student) workers.

Inspectors will focus on workplaces newly registered with the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board and that haven't had a proactive health and safety visit within the last five years. The focus for inspections will be on retail, restaurant, food, beverage, hospitality and recreational services.

The blitz will run until August 30, 2019.

To learn more and for assistance, contact the health and safety experts at Sherrard Kuzz LLP.

The information contained in this article is provided for general information purposes only and does not constitute legal or other professional advice, nor does accessing this information create a lawyer-client relationship. This article is current as of July 2019 and applies only to Ontario, Canada, or such other laws of Canada as expressly indicated. Information about the law is checked for legal accuracy as at the date the presentation/article is prepared, but may become outdated as laws or policies change. For clarification or for legal or other professional assistance please contact Sherrard Kuzz LLP.

