

Vaccinated Outside Your Home Province/Territory, or Canada?
No Problem!
Here's How To Update Your Local Records

As COVID-19 numbers continue to drop across Canada, there is increasing optimism that provinces, territories and borders will “open up”. In this “open” environment, an individual’s vaccination status may become highly relevant, and it will be imperative to ensure this information is up-to-date, accurate and accessible.

The attached briefing note outlines the steps an individual can take to update their records if they received one or more doses of the COVID-19 vaccine outside their home province, territory, or Canada.

* Accurate as of June 22, 2021.
